How the World was created

(Panayan)

In the beginning there was nothing and everything the world is made of mist formless and shapeless things and confusions everywhere. From these confusions, there grows two gods Tungkung langit and Alun Sina. There two gods married and live in the highest realm of ethereal space. Tungkung langit took the responsibility on writing everything in the world.

“Watch my love and I will create the universe for you”. Tungkung langit said. “ I can create too, let me help you” Offered Alunsina. “ Never mind my love I want this to be my gift for you”. “But me too for I am a goddess”. And when Tungkung langit finally shouted his voice echoed through out the vast emptiness was then.

Every word that escapes from Tungkung langit’s mouth came through the newly made son spread’s its lays. The planets appeared and the moon pick out. The wind began to make its presence felt everything began to look different. Tungkung langit and Alunsina live happily ever after.
